CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

2 22-04-2024 The present writ petition has been filed seeking the following reliefs:-

“1(i). For Issuance of Writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondent authorities to vitiate the entire Selection Process for "Recruitment of Ex- Service men in Permanent Vacancies Of Bank Guard" at State Bank of India, whereas the entire selection process has been initiated without issuance and publication of any Advertisement by the Respondent Authority and being arbitrary and on pick and choose basis, Whereas the selection process has been initiated on the request of respondent no.5 to respondent no.2 for providing detail list of Ex-Army Officer after preliminary screening and on the basis of list respondent no.5 making call to the candidates on pick and choose basis, without following any established procedure of selection and the appointment of candidates were initiated, solely on the discretion of Respondent State Bank of India.

(ii). For Issuance of Writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondent authority to initiate a fresh selection after making advertisement and following the due process of selection of Ex-Servicemen in Permanent Vacancies of Bank Guard at different Branches of respondent SBI.

(iii). For Issuance of Writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondent authority specially respondent no.5 to consider the candidature of the petitioner after issuing letter and making a call for "Physical Test", whereas petitioner's name was mentioned in the list prepared by respondent no.4 i.e "District Soldier Welfare Officer", but in spite of that petitioner has not been called for Physical Test by respondent bank and no reason has been assigned for rejection of their candidature.

(iv). For restraining the respondent authority and granting stay on the entire selection process of Ex- Servicemen in Permanent Vacancies of Bank Guard at Respondent Bank, as the entire selection process has been initiated in suspicious manner on pick and choose basis, without making any advertisement and following selection procedure.”

2. After some arguments, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks not to press the present writ petition, however, seeks liberty on behalf of the petitioner to approach the Respondent authorities for redressal of his aforesaid grievances. Liberty, so sought, is granted.

3. The present writ petition stands dismissed as not pressed.
