CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR PANDEY
ORAL ORDER

2 29-11-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Tarun Prasad Mandal, learned APP for the State.

2. The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Keoti P.S. Case No. 153 of 2024 instituted for the offence under Sections 341, 323, 324, 307, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and others called the son of the informant at their residence and administered intoxicated substance in cold drink. After that they assaulted him and thrown him after strangulation. One Ugranath Paswan informed the informant regarding the occurrence. Then the informant rushed his son to hospital where he was treated.

4. During course of the argument, learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that from the perusal of the FIR itself it is clear that the informant has not seen the occurrence. He further submits that the informant has filed a compromise petition before the trial court. From perusal of the order of the trial court it is clear that the nature of injury on the person of Vikki Kumar Das is not clear. The petitioner is having no criminal antecedent.

5. In contra, learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer of bail of the petitioner.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender in connection with Keoti P.S. Case No. 153 of 2024, he will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Darbhanga subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
