ORAL ORDER

2 16-12-2024 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. Petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Baisi P.S. Case No.84 of 2024, registered for the offence punishable u/s 323, 342, 379, 376 of IPC.

3. Allegedly, the petitioner established physical relation with the informant several times on the pretext of marrying her.
When informant came to know that petitioner is marrying someone else, she went to petitioner's house where petitioner along with other co-accused persons assaulted her and snatched silver chain from her.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and has not committed any offence.
He has been falsely implicated in this case due to ulterior motive. It is further submitted that victim is a major and physical relation has been established with her consent. On perusal of FIR, informant herself admitted that she had sexual relation with the petitioner for a long time but she never disclosed the matter even to her parents and when she came to know that petitioner's marriage is going to be held, she filed this case against the petitioner. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para 3 of the bail application.

5. Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for bail.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances and the nature of allegation, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The prayer for grant of anticipatory bail on his behalf is hereby rejected.

7. This application is accordingly dismissed.
