2 17-12-2024 As both these bail applications have cropped up from the same police station case number, hence, with consent of parties, they are being heard together and disposed of by this common order.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State.

3. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 115 (2), 118 (1), 109, 126 (2), 351 (2) & 352 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

4. While the informant and his son were running their grocery shop, all the accused persons named in the F.I.R. including these petitioners having with deadly weapons came to the informant and assaulted him and his son by their respective arms.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that no such occurrence as alleged ever took place. Petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. The allegation levelled against the petitioners is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. It is further submitted that informant's son often used to tease the minor daughter of petitioner-Seema Devi and on the alleged date of occurrence when the minor daughter of petitioner-Seema Devi was returning to her home with her brother after taking tuition and reached near the shop of the informant, his son Munna Sah started making obscene gesture to the petitioner's daughter and her brother reacted angrily and scuffle took place and on the commotion, the villagers came there and pacify both the parties. During course of scuffle, the informant leg slipped and fell down on the floor and due to that reason, he sustained injury which is simple in nature, as opined by the doctor. This false and frivolous case has been lodged only with an intent to safeguard and to prove their innocence. Petitioners have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para-3 of this application.
