PANDEY

ORAL ORDER

2 12-01-2024 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP, Shri Shailendra Kumar.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that although the anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner and one Renu Devi was rejected vide order dated 09.02.2023 in Cr. Misc No. 57522 of 2022, but the fresh ground for renewal of the petition is that the informant who is an eye witness, became hostile during trial of co-accused Sanjay Yadav (Sessions Trial No. 622 of 2023). Learned counsel has further submitted that both the parties have compromised the case.

3. The deposition of the informant, Bachchu Prasad is annexed with the record. In examination-in-chief, though he has stated that the petitioner and other co-accused persons were quarreling with his mother and there was marpit between them, but in his cross-examination, he has stated that he did not see the occurrence.

4. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the court below and make a prayer for regular bail which shall be disposed of on the day of her surrender. The learned court below shall pass an appropriate order without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

5. With these observation, the criminal miscellaneous petition is disposed of.
