ORAL ORDER

2 25-01-2024 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove the defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of three weeks from today.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

3. The Petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Gopalganj Town P.S. Case No. 801 of 2023 dated 09.10.2023 for the offences punishable u/s 30(a), 30(c), 33
and 41(1) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

4. As per the prosecution case, total 800 litres of spirit was recovered from the Mahindra Jito which was being driven by the co-accused Deepak Kumar Sharma. Further, 200 litres of spirit kept in a drum and some machine used for the preparation liquor were recovered from the house of the co-accused Guddu Shah.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioner has clean antecedent as stated at para 3 of the bail petition. No incriminating article has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner, hence no case is made out. The petitioner is the owner of the said vehicle but the said vehicle was not being driven by the petitioner at the time of the alleged occurrence. Learned Counsel has relied on the judgment of Full Bench of Hon'ble Patna High Court in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav vs. State of Bihar reported in 2019 (2) PLJR 1089. The Full Bench in the case of Ram Vinay Yadav (supra) has held that an application for anticipatory bail in a case arising out of Bihar Excise and Prohibition Act can be maintained, despite the bar under Section 76 (2) of the Act, if on the basis of allegation made in the FIR, no offence under the said provision is made out.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner by submitting that the bar of Section 76(2) of the Act applies in this case.

7. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case as well as the nature of allegation against the petitioner, let the above named petitioner, in the event of his arrest/surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be enlarged on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court concerned, Gopalganj in connection with Gopalganj Town P.S. Case No. 801 of 2023, subject to conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
