ORAL ORDER

4      03-05-2024                      Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners are apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable in connection with Runnisaidpur P.S. Case No.429 of 2023 under Sections 363, 366A and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per the prosecution, the FIR has been lodged against seven named accused persons including the present petitioners that they have actively participated in kidnapping of the informant's daughter.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent and have committed no offence. He submits that the alleged victim has been recovered and she has narrated her statement under section 164 of Cr.P.C. before the Magistrate.

5. Counsel further submits that on the previous occasion, case diary and her statement under section 164 of Cr.P.C. have been called for. He further submits that in her statement, she has alleged nothing against the present petitioners rather disclosed the name of only two accused persons.

6. Counsel also submits that there is one criminal case pending against the petitioners in which they are on bail and charge-sheet has already been framed in this case.

7. Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

8. In the present facts and circumstances, let the above named petitioners be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of 6 weeks from today, on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned A.D.J.-cum-Special Judge (POCSO Act)- VI, Sitamarhi in connection with Runnisaidpur P.S. Case No.429 of 2023, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
