CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

- 4 04-07-2024 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State, Mr. Chandra Bhushan Prasad.
2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 304(B), 201 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a person with clean antecedent and has been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant.
4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that a complaint case came to be instituted by the complainant in the year 1999 alleging that his sister was married to Awadh Paswan (petitioner) and after marriage, the accused persons including the present petitioner started demanding television and cash of Rs. 10,000/- and for non-fulfillment of the demand, his sister was tortured and finally she was killed by the accused persons.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since the complaint case came to be instituted, as such, the petitioner was not aware that a case with regard to murder has been instituted by the complainant. It is next submitted that it appears that the complaint remained pending with the learned Trial Court till 2016 without any action and thereafter the complaint was referred in the year 2016 for instituting an FIR, based on which, the instant FIR came to be instituted in the year 2021. It is submitted that there was a delay by the Court in sending the complaint for instituting an FIR, further the police even did not institute an FIR promptly rather the same was instituted after a delay of five years. It is next submitted that petitioner is the husband of the deceased. It is also submitted that police after investigation came to a considered conclusion that petitioner is innocent and thus submitted final form bearing Final Form No. 03 of 2022 dated 14.01.2022. It is next submitted that the learned Trial Court differing with the police report has taken cognizance, based on which, the petitioner apprehends his arrest.

6. Learned A.P.P. for the State, Mr. Chandra Bhushan Prasad, opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner and submits that a counter affidavit has been filed in Criminal Miscellaneous No. 67792 of 2023, which was preferred by the brothers of the petitioner herein.

7. The learned counsel for the petitioner, at this stage, submits that when police after investigation has found the petitioner to be innocent whether it would be prudent for this Court to send the petitioner to jail when based on the same investigation cognizance has been taken. It is also submitted that petitioner will not abscond rather will co-operate in the trial.

8. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Manpur P.S. Case No. 153 of 2021 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.

9. However, in the event if the learned Trial Court comes to the conclusion that petitioner, after obtaining anticipatory bail, are trying to delay the trial in any manner, the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.

10. Accordingly, the present anticipatory bail application stands allowed.
