ORAL ORDER

2      07-02-2024      Heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Natwar P.S. Case No. 170 of 2023, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 307, 354, 504, 323, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per allegation, the offshoot of the occurrence is a trivial feud between the children. A scuffle took place between two children and in consequence thereof, the accused persons including the petitioners assaulted Ayush Kumar, son of the informant. While wife of the informant came to rescue, she was also assaulted.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have falsely been implicated in the present case. They are the persons of clean antecedent. The FIR itself shows that the reason for dispute between the parties, is trivial issue over the quarreling of the children and, the injuries are simple in nature.

5. Learned APP opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, let the petitioners, in the event of their arrest or surrender within four weeks before the learned court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate-Ist Class, Bikramganj, Rohtas in connection with Natwar P.S. Case No. 170 of 2023, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
