3. The allegation against the petitioner is that she got employment as untrained teacher on the basis of forged document.

The case was registered against the principle of natural justice as the petitioner was not given an opportunity to rebut the claim that she submitted any forged document. Learned counsel further submits that no useful purpose would be served by putting the petitioner behind bar and she is ready to cooperate with the investigation and there is no possibility of tampering or doing anything of that sort. The petitioner is having clean antecedent. Learned counsel further submits that a large number of persons have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court vide order dated 10.01.2024, passed in Cr. Having regard to the facts and circumstances and submissions made on behalf of the parties and considering the fact that the petitioner is a lady and further grant of anticipatory bail to other similarly placed persons, the petitioner above named, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the court concerned within a period of eight weeks from today, be released on bail, on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned 1st Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purnea/concerned court in connection with Banmankhi P.S.
