ORDER

1. On the facts as they pertain today, Mr. P. Yobin, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the writ petition has been rendered infructuous, in view of an order dated 17.09.2024 passed by respondent No. 3.

2. A copy of the order dated 17.09.2024 has been produced, wherein the respondents have stated that it has been established that the petitioner occupies one of the teacher position under SSA, and there is no justifiable reason for withholding of his salary. It is also stated therein that he is entitled to receive his salary along with all outstanding payments, which should be processed promptly without any further delay.

3. In view of this development, the matter stands closed and disposed of on being infructuous.

4. Ms. P. Riahtam, learned counsel for the respondent No. 8, however still maintains that the petitioner has been irregularly appointed. Liberty is given to her to assail the same in another proceeding, if deemed necessary.

5. A copy of the order is taken on board, and made part of the record.
