ORDER

1. Mr. S. Dey, learned counsel has entered appearance today on behalf of the respondent No. 2 the concerned College, wherein the petitioner No. 2 is studying. He submits that there has been no application or whatsoever that has been filed before the College authorities for condonation for the shortfall in the attendance. He further submits that as an undertaking has also been given at the time of admission, the students are bound to comply with the same, with the minimum requirement of attendance

2. It is noted that the writ petitioner perhaps has come before this Court as a last resort in view of the fact that the 5th Semester Exam is scheduled to be held on 18.11.2024, and the last date for submission of examination forms and fees is today the 14.11.2024.

3. In these circumstances on hearing the parties, the respondent No. 2 is directed to consider the case of the petitioner No.2 during the course of the College working hours, today. It is also directed that the mother or the petitioners be present at that time, with whatever testimonials necessary, in support of the prayer of the student/petitioner No. 2.

4. With the above directions, this matter stands closed and is accordingly disposed of.
