...for the Petitioners.

Mr. K.J. Yusuf
Mr. Parikshit Goswami

...for the State.

The petitioners allege police inaction to protect their life and property.

Mr. Billawdal Bhattacharjee, learned advocate for the petitioners submits that they have an order of injunction in their favour restraining the private respondents from entering the relevant property and dispossessing the petitioners. The private respondents also have been restrained from changing the nature and character of the suit property.

He submits that the private respondents have violated the said injunction order and threatened the petitioners with dire consequences. The petitioners lodged two complaints dated December 24, 2023 and December 27, 2023 before the police against the private respondents.

Let the report filed by the police be kept with the record.
