Pulak Das @ Pailan

vs.

Provabati Pailan @ Das and others

Mr. Samim Ul Bari

... for the petitioner

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of Title Suit No.4347 of 2014, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 7th Court at Alipore, South 24 Parganas. It is submitted that the suit is at the stage of preemptory hearing and no interlocutory applications are pending.

Under such circumstances, this court is of the view that justice would be subserved, if the learned court below is directed to dispose of the said suit, on an urgent basis.

This court has not gone into the merits of the suit. An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation, enures to the benefit of all the parties. Hence, prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite parties, would not be necessary. The prayer is innocuous and very reasonable.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the pending suit, within a year from the next date fixed, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties and upon granting adequate opportunity to the opposite parties to contest the proceedings. The learned court below shall proceed strictly in accordance with law and independently.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this revisional application along with the server copy of this order upon the opposite parties.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

All the parties are directed to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
