

Item No.8
15.03.2024
Court. No. 19
GB

C.O. 162 of 2024

Sri Dipak Pal
Vs.
Smt. Sayani Das

Mr. Amlan Biswas

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the Misc. Case No.211 of 2022 along with an interlocutory application, which are pending before the Learned Additional District Judge, Fast Track 4th Court at Barrackpore, District – 24 parganas (North).

Considering the submissions, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the application within a period of two months from the next date fixed. Thereafter, the misc. case shall be disposed of within a year. Adequate opportunity shall be given to the parties to contest the same.

This court has neither expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications nor on the merits of the misc. case. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
