Sl. No.9
(PP)

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
CONSTITUTIONAL WRIT JURISDICTION
APPELLATE SIDE

WPA 507 of 2011

Anwar Hossain Mondal
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

On the file being sent by the department, this matter was placed in the list. It is running in the list for several weeks and has been called on from time to time.

No one has ever responded when the matter has been called on. The matter, therefor, was placed in the list with the note "First Chance". No one responded even at this stage. Then the matter appeared in the list marked as "Last Chance".

Despite being called on several times when the matter appeared in the list marked as "Last Chance", no one appeared.

It appears that the petitioner on being dismissed from service had written to the Labour Commissioner for initiating an industrial dispute alleging that the same was not adhered to, this writ petition was filed. This writ petition was filed in the year 2011.

On 19th April, 2011 when the matter appeared in the list it was directed to go out of the list with liberty to mention after eight weeks since the petitioner did not appear when the matter was called on.

It appears that no further steps have been taken in this matter since then.

On a perusal of the application, it appears that with the passage of time the same has become infructuous and as such, the petitioner is no more interested to proceed with the writ petition. The same is accordingly disposed of without any order.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of all necessary formalities.
