C.O. No. 220 of 2024

Antareep Mahanti
Vs.
Tamal Kanti Dey & Ors.

Mr. Suryasarathi Basu

.....for the petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the Title Suit No. 14520 of 2011, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) 10th Court, Alipore.

It is submitted that the suit has been fixed for peremptory hearing and no interlocutory applications are pending.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

As this is a suit of 2011, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the suit within a year from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
