Court No. 19
Item No.47
Cp

C.O. No. 226 of 2024

Mr. Gaurav Agarwal & Anr.
Vs.
Smt. Chhabi Das & Ors.

Mr. Gautam Das

.....for the petitioners.

The petitioners pray for expeditious disposal of the pending applications for injunction, filed by each of the parties, in connection with Title Suit No. 185 of 2023. The same are pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court, Sealdah.

The prayer of the petitioners is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the pending applications, within two months from the next date fixed, as it is informed that the written objection had been filed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
