In Re:- An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Mandir Bazar Police Station Case No. 257 of 2023 dated 05.06.2023 under Sections 447/325/326/307/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

And

In Re: Amit Baidya & Anr.

..... petitioners

Mr. Surajit Basu

....for the petitioners

Mr. Z.N. Khan

...for the State

Two persons received injuries in an incident of assault emanating out of the property dispute.

There is a counter police complaint.

None of the injuries were classified as grievous hurt.

One injured suffered lacerated injury requiring stitches to be administered.

Considering the nature of the injuries and the incident, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The petitioners will report before the Investigating Officer once a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation. The petitioners shall appear on every date before the Jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
