C.O. No. 400 of 2024
Smt. Annumani Roy
Versus
Smt. Gouri Goswami & Ors.

Mr. Kausik Majumder

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner is the landlord, who seeks expeditious disposal of Ejectment Suit No.130 of 2011, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 2nd Court at Sealdah.

Considering the submission, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner, for early disposal of the proceeding, is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of, with a direction upon the learned court to dispose of all pending applications, within a period of four months from the next date fixed, independently and strictly in accordance with law, upon allowing the parties to contest the proceeding. Thereafter, the suit shall proceed and be disposed of within a year, from the date of disposal of the applications. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has neither gone into the merits of the applications nor into the merits of the suit.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
