1. Petitioner is in custody for 296 days. He submits he has been falsely implicated. He prays for bail.
2. Learned lawyer for the State opposes the bail prayer. He submits two persons had died in the course of incident.
3. We have considered the materials on record. We have also examined the prosecution witnesses examined in the case. They state petitioner had also participated in the assault.
4. In view of the aforesaid incriminating materials and bearing in mind the gravity of offence resulting in death of two persons we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.
5. Accordingly, prayer for bail is rejected.
6. Trial court is requested to expedite the trial and conclude the same at an early date.
