Sandhya Barman
-Vs-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Anirban Chakraborty
... for the petitioner
Ms. Pratiti Das
.....For the State

The affidavit of service filed by the learned Advocate for the petitioner in Court today be kept on record.

The learned Advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was a teacher of a school and retired from service on 30.04.2012. Pension Payment Order was issued in favour of the petitioner on 15.01.2014 and arrear pension and gratuity of the petitioner was released on 10.03.2014.

Although the petitioner was entitled to payment of pensionary benefit from the next date of his retirement, the same was not paid. By representing this writ petition, the petitioner prays for an order on the respondents to award interest on delayed payment of arrear pension and gratuity.

I have heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and have also considered the orders passed by different Hon'ble Judges on the writ petitions involving similar issues.

In view thereof, the writ petition stands disposed of with a direction upon the respondents and particularly the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner on arrear pension and gratuity @ 9% per annum from the next date of retirement of the petitioner till the date of actual payment within 16 weeks from the date of service of an authenticated copy of this order failing which, additional interest @ 2% per annum shall be payable to the petitioner.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, on priority basis.
