In Re : Rintu Biswas

..... petitioner

Mr. Asraf Mandal

...for the petitioner

Mr. Ashok Das

...for the State

Defacto-complainant recorded a statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. subsequent to our dated March 6, 2024. In such statement, she stated that the matrimonial disputes stand resolved and that she is living happily with her husband.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The petitioner will report before the Investigating Officer as and when called for till the conclusion of the investigation. The petitioner shall appear on every date before the Jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
