

02.04.2024.
PB
Sl. No.39.

WPA 7452 of 2024

Supratik Ghosh
Vs
State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Raja Sharma.
... For the Petitioner.
Mr. Amitesh Banerjee,
Mr. Debangshu Dinda.
.....for the State.

Heard learned advocates appearing for the parties.

By this writ petition, petitioner has made prayer for relief of direction upon the learned Taxation Tribunal for expeditious disposal of the pending proceeding in question.

Mr. Banerjee, learned senior standing counsel representing the State respondents submits that the writ petition and the prayer made by the petitioner has become infructuous in view of the fact as appears from record that the impugned proceeding has already been culminated into the final order and the appeal in question has already been disposed of by the learned tribunal by the order dated 7th December, 2023, which is not the subject matter of challenge in this writ petition and which is an appellable order under the statute or there may be some other remedy available to the petitioner, but in the facts and circumstances of the case as appears from record, petitioner is not entitled for the relief he has asked for in this writ petition.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and submission of the parties, this writ petition being WPA 7452 of 2024 is dispose of with liberty to the petitioner to seek appropriate remedy in accordance with law before the appropriate forum, if petitioner is so aggrieved by the subsequent order passed by the learned tribunal on 7th December, 2023.

Xerox copy of the order submitted by Mr. Banerjee be kept with the record. Let it be recorded that Mr. Banerjee has handed over a copy of the order dated 7th December, 2023, to the learned advocate for the petitioner, in Court.

(Md. Nizamuddin, J.)