Ms. Suparna Chatterjee

1. Heard the learned Counsels for the parties.
2. Report is placed on record. Co-accused has been committed to the Court of Sessions. There are materials to show petitioner had set his wife on fire. Fortunately she survived. Vulnerable witness is yet to be examined. Under such circumstances, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
3. The application for bail is, thus, rejected.
4. Trial court is requested to take prompt steps to consider the issue of framing of charge and proceed with the trial with utmost expedition without granting unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.
