CO 936 of 2024

Dr. Shiladitya Chakraborty vs.
Anamitra Chatterjee

Mr. Sounak Bhattacharya
Mr. Sounak Mondal

... for the petitioner

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of Matrimonial Suit No.349 of 2016, which is pending before the learned Additional District Judge, 2nd Court at Sealdah, South 24 Parganas. It is informed that no other interlocutory applications are pending. It is submitted that the suit is at the stage of evidence. It is also submitted that the wife did not claim for maintenance pendente lite.

Under such circumstances, this court is of the view that justice would be subserved, if the learned court is directed to dispose of the said suit, on an urgent basis.

This court has not gone into the merits of the suit. An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation, enures to the benefit of all the parties. Hence, prior service of this revisional application would not be necessary. The prayer is innocuous and very reasonable.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court to make a sincere endeavour to dispose of the pending suit within a period of six months from the next date fixed, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties and upon granting adequate opportunity to the opposite party to contest the proceedings. The learned court shall proceed strictly in accordance with law and independently.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this revisional application along with the server copy of this order upon the opposite party.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

All the parties are directed to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
