In Re: - An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Kaliganj Police Station Case No.87 of 2024 dated 21.01.2024 under Sections 195A/376/511 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, pending before the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Krishnagar.(GR Case No.590 of 2024).

And

In the matter of: Raju Sekh @ Aajmat Ali Sekh

....petitioner.

Mr. Atis Kumar Blswas

Mr. Amit Singh

Mrs. Jyoti Agarwal

...for the petitioner.

Mr. Anand Keshari

... for the State.

There is a previous police complaint at the behest of the de facto complainant, against the petitioner, where the petitioner was enlarged on bail.

The previous complaint was one of outraging of modesty.

The present police complaint relates to an attempt to commit rape.

Materials in the case diary do not suggest requirement of placing the petitioner in custody for interrogation.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a Bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner will report before the Investigating Officer once a fortnight till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

C.R.M. (A) 1009 of 2024 is, thus, disposed of.
