Vs.

The State of West Bengal

Mr. Manish Sen

Ms. Oisani Mukherjee

... for the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present revisional application had been preferred due to an amicable settlement between the parties. At present the said settlement has failed and the trial is proceeding before the trial court.

Accordingly, the petitioner does not wish to proceed with the present case and has pray for withdrawing the same. The petitioner is permitted to withdraw the revisional as prayed for.

The revisional application stands disposed of on being withdrawn.
