.... for the State

1. Heard the learned Counsels for the parties.
2. We have considered the materials on record. We have also considered the injury report. Injuries do not appear to be life threatening. Petitioner is in custody for about a fortnight. Accordingly, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
3. Accordingly, we direct that the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Asansol, subject to conditions that petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate the witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.
4. In the event the petitioner fails to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

5. The application for bail is, accordingly, allowed.
