C.O. 1382 of 2024

Sujata Chakraborty & Anr.
Vs.
Maya Chakraborty & Anr.

*Mr. Chayan Gupta,
Mr. Shoham Sanyal,
Mr. Sujit Biswas,
Mr. Rajarshee Bhowmick*

...for the Petitioners.

By this application, the petitioners seek expeditious disposal of an application under Order 40 Rule 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) 10th Court at Alipore.

It is submitted that the said application has been filed on March 28, 2023.

Considering the submissions, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioners is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court to make a sincere endeavour to dispose of application within a period of four months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be given to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the application. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application, along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
