... .. for the petitioner

Mr. Shekhar Barman

... .. for the State

1. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that he is in custody for about three years and eight months. It is further submitted there is inordinate delay in trial. Co-accused have been enlarged on bail. Accordingly, he prays for bail.
2. Learned Advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail.
3. We have considered the materials on record. On the score of delay in trial, co-accused have been enlarged on bail. Petitioner stands on the same footing with the said co-accused. Hence, we are inclined to extend the same privilege to the petitioner also.
4. Therefore, the accused/petitioner, namely Anil Kumar Singh, be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Special Court under the NDPS Act-cum-Additional Sessions Judge, 3rd Court, Asansol subject to condition that the said petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever or commit similar offences in future.

5. In the event he fails to appear before the trial court without any justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without reference to this court.
6. The application for bail, thus, stands allowed.
