Subrata Kumar Bala & Ors.

Vs.

Union of India & Ors.

Mr. Asok Bhowmik

...for the Respondents

Learned counsel for the Union of India is present.

Today again there is none to represent the petitioner. There is also no prayer for accommodation.

We find from the order sheet that on last two occasions the petitioner has been unrepresented. We are of the prima facie view that the petitioner has lost interest in the present case.

The writ petition is dismissed in default.
