CRR 2323 of 2024

Ejajul Sekh @ Hajijul
Vs.
State of West Bengal

Adv. Avinaba Patra,
Adv. Dipayan Kundu,

... for the petitioner.

Adv. Debasish Roy, Ld. PP,
Adv. Saryati Datta,

...for the State.

Heard learned counsels for the parties. Perused the Case Diary.

The petitioner has assailed the order passed by the learned Additional District & Sessions Judge, 4th Court, Malda cum Special Court under NDPS Act on May 3, 2024 in NDPS case no. 111 of 2021 issuing warrant of proclamation and attachment against the petitioner fixing 13th June, 2024 for appearance and execution return of the proclamation.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the statutory period of thirty days after issuance of the proclamation was not granted to him prior to the execution of the proclamation.

It appears that the proclamation was issued on 3rd May, 2024 fixing 13th June, 2024 for appearance and execution return of the proclamation. The proclamation was directed to be executed on 13th June, 2024 and in fact executed on 24th June, 2024.

In view of the above, this Court finds no illegality in such order or compliance thereof and as such, the revisional application, being CRR 2323 of 2024 is dismissed as redundant.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, upon compliance of all requisite formalities.

Case Diary be returned.
