C.R.R.2621 of 2023

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973;

Sri Ashis Sil @ Ashis Kumar Seal and others
Versus
State of West Bengal and another

Mr. Ayan Bhattacharjee
Mr. Debaditya Das.
...for the petitioners.

Mr. Bhattacharjee, learned advocate, appears for the petitioners.

The subject matter of challenge relates to the charge-sheet submitted in connection with Bizpore Police Station Case No.432 of 2021 dated 07.09.2021 under Sections 447/323/354B/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 8 of the POCSO Act.

Learned advocate submits that there were previous disputes between the family of the de facto complainant as well as the accused persons and the de facto complainant has used the provisions of POCSO Act as the scope for settling the dispute at her command.

Be that as it may, the same is a question of fact which has to be gone into by addressing the fact adduced by the respective parties. Having regard to the same, I am of the opinion that the petitioners would canvass all the points which have been addressed in the present revisional application at the appropriate stage of proceedings before the learned special court.

With the aforesaid observations, CRR 2621 of 2023 is disposed of.

Pending connected application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of all requisite formalities.
