....for the State

1. We have considered the materials on record. Petitioner is in custody for 56 days. Co-accused are on bail. Petitioner is not the accused who had dealt the fatal blow.
2. Under such circumstances, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
3. Accordingly, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jhargram subject to the condition that the petitioner shall appear before the trial court on each and every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.
4. In the event petitioner fails to appear before the Trial Court without any justifiable cause, the Trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel her bail without any further reference to this Court.
5. The application for bail is, thus, allowed and disposed of.
