CRR No. 3127 of 2024

In the matter of : Amit Das .. petitioner.

Mr. Falguni Bandyopadhyay
Ms. Riya Ballav ...for the petitioner.

Since the innocuous prayer of the petitioner is for expeditious disposal of Complaint Case No.139 of 2021 pending before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Baruipur, South 24 Parganas the matter may be considered without service of notice upon the opposite parties.

The opposite parties shall not be prejudiced by an order directing expeditious disposal of the case.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though the case was registered on 6th March, 2021, plea has not been considered by the learned Magistrate till date.

The accused/private opposite party failed to appear before the learned Trial Court on the date fixed by the Court for which warrant of arrest has been issued against him.

It appears from the record that the private opposite party/accused did not appear before the learned Trial Court on several occasions for which warrants of arrest were issued against him. The accused was granted bail by the learned Trial Court on every occasion.

Since warrant of arrest has again been issued against the accused/private opposite party, the learned Trial Court is directed to secure the attendance of the private opposite party before him and consider recording of plea on the next date of hearing fixed before him. If the same is not possible due to unavoidable circumstances, recording of plea shall be considered within a month thereafter. The learned Trial Court shall also make all endeavours to conclude trial as expeditiously as possible, preferably within one year from the date on which plea is recorded, without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties, in accordance with law.

The revisional application being CRR 3127 of 2024 is disposed of.

Urgent certified website copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on compliance of requisite formalities.
