CO/2678/2015

Vivek Gutgutia
-Vs.-
Asha Gourisaria Gutgutia

Both the parties are not represented.

The instant application is filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India challenging the impugned order dated 8.7.2015 passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family Court No. 1, Calcutta in connection with Matrimonial Suit No. 49/2009. By passing the impugned order learned Court directed the opposite party/mother of the ward to produce the child in the Court on 7.07.2015. Being aggrieved by and dissatisfied with the impugned order passed by the Family Court the instant application is preferred by the petitioner/father of the ward.

Today, there is no representation on behalf of the parties and the matter is pending since the year 2015. So, I find there is no justification to keep this matter again in the list for hearing.

Accordingly, the revisional application being CO/2678/2015 is hereby dismissed for default.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

There will be no order as to costs.
