1. Petitioner contends he was not identified during TI parade examination. He is in custody for more than seven months. He prays for bail.
2. Learned lawyer for the State submits stolen articles were recovered from the petitioner. They have been identified by the complainant.
3. We have considered the materials on record. Stolen articles were recovered from the petitioner which have been identified by the complainant. Petitioner has criminal antecedents.
4. Under such circumstances, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
5. Accordingly, prayer for bail is rejected.
