2. Pursuant to our earlier order, Stridhan articles have been returned to the de-facto complainant in presence of the investigating agency, as it appears from the report filed by I.O.
3. Considering the materials available in the case diary, the nature and extent of complicity of the petitioners in the commission of the alleged offence and also having regard to the nature of injury, which appears to be simple, and the Stridhan articles have been returned to the de-facto complainant, we are of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not necessary.
