Pubali Chowdhury and another
vs.
Anirban Biswas and others

Mr. Bidhyut Kr. Halder

... for the applicants

The applicants allege that the private parties had fixed the glow sign board beyond the outer ceiling of the first floor in violation of the order dated August 25, 2022. Thus, this contempt application has been filed.

In the writ petition, no mandatory direction was given against any statutory authority to take steps with regard to the allegations. It is also not available whether the petitioner approached any authority for relief.

Under such circumstances, the applicants are at liberty to file a writ petition if they are aggrieved by any inaction on the part of any authority.

Accordingly, the contempt application is disposed of. Contempt proceedings are dropped.
