The application for anticipatory bail is taken up for consideration subsequent to the order dated October 17, 2023.

By such order, the Coordinate Bench granted interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

It is submitted at the bar that, such order was passed without consulting the materials in the case diary and in view of the ensuing puja vacation.

We perused the materials in the case diary.

Some persons suffered injuries in the incident. One of the persons is a lady. She was 2 and ½ months pregnant at that point of time.

The petitioner before us assaulted the pregnant lady in the abdomen repeatedly, by reason of which, the pregnant lady suffered bleeding injuries at the abdomen. There are materials in the case diary suggesting miscarriage.

In such circumstances, considering the gravity of the offence and the involvement of the petitioner in the offence, we are unable to confirm the interim order dated October 17, 2023 or grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected.

C.R.M. (A) 4652 of 2023 is dismissed.
