The application for anticipatory bail is taken up for consideration subsequent to the order dated October 17, 2023.

By such order, the Coordinate Bench granted interim anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

It is submitted at the bar that, such order was passed without consulting the materials in the case diary and in view of the ensuing puja vacation.

We perused the materials in the case diary.

The persons who received the stolen articles were granted bail by the jurisdictional court. One of the petitioners before this court is the son of such person and the others were the employees.

In such circumstances, we confirm the interim order dated October 17, 2023 and grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of

Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioners shall report before the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accuseds and in default, the jurisdictional court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioners in court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
