Sl. No. 13

Ct. No. 655

Srimanta

CO/3596/2015

Gopal Mondal

-Vs.-

Aparupa Mondal

Both the parties are not represented.

The instant revisional application is filed at the behest of the petitioner/husband challenging the impugned order dated 24.08.2015 passed by the learned Trial Court. By passing the impugned order learned Trial Court allowed the petition filed by the opposite party/wife filed under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act with a direction upon the present petitioner/husband to pay Rs.9,000/- per month as alimony pendent lite to the respondent/wife and her minor child. The petitioner is further directed to pay Rs.10,000/- as litigation cost in favour of the opposite party/wife.

Being aggrieved and dissatisfied with the said impugned order the husband has preferred this revisional application filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India and it is pending since the year 2015. As such, I find no justification to keep this revisional application pending in the list. Accordingly, the revisional application being CO/3596/2015 is hereby dismissed for default.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

There will be no order as to costs.
