In Re: Application for bail under section 483 BNSS (corresponding to section 439 CrPC) in connection with Jagacha P. S. Case No. 134 of 2024 dated August 10, 2024 under sections 85/117(2)/109(2) BNS.

Mr. Purna Chandra Maity ...for the petitioner

Mr. Rana Mukherjee
Mr. Md. Yaser A. Ismail ... for the State

Ms. Raj Lakshmi Shaw ...for the de facto complainant

Learned advocate representing the petitioner submits that he has been falsely implicated in the case. In addition thereto, it is also submitted that he has been arrested on August 18, 2024 and in the mean time when in custody charge-sheet has already been submitted.

Learned Additional Government Pleader representing the State opposes the prayer for bail based on materials available on the case diary produced before this court. It is submitted that the father-in-law of the petitioner sustained injury for which he had to be hospitalized.

Learned advocate representing the de facto complainant has not opposed the prayer for bail rather submission is made to support the case made out by the petitioner.

We have perused the materials available on record including the injury report. It is also found that the charge-sheet has already been submitted.

In consideration of the materials available in the case diary and taking note of extent of complicity of the petitioner in commission of the alleged offences, we find that further incarceration of the petitioner is not required.

Accordingly, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Howrah.

The petitioner shall appear before the trial court on each and every date of trial.

In the event of failing to complying with the above condition, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail without any reference to this court.

CRM(DB) No.3651 of 2024 is thus allowed and disposed of.

All concerned parties are to act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.

Certified copy of this order, if applied for, shall be made available to the parties.
