....for the State

Petitioner prays for anticipatory bail.

Principal assailant was arrested and granted bail by the jurisdictional Court.

Petitioner before us is the wife of the principal assailant. Role ascribed to the petitioner before us is assault by a brick on the head.

Police filed charge-sheet.

Considering the nature of the injury and involvement of the petitioner in the incident and the fact that principal assailant was granted bail, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
