Sri Uday Chand Dhar

vs.

Smt. Aloka Ghosh

Mr. Abhimanyu Banerjee

... for the petitioner

The petitioner is the defendant in Title Suit No.52 of 2013, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Chinsurah, Hooghly. He prays for expeditious disposal of the suit. The suit is for permanent injunction and is at the stage of evidence. It is further submitted that no interlocutory applications are pending.

Under such circumstances, this court is of the view that justice would be subserved, if the learned court below is directed to dispose of the said suit, on an urgent basis.

This court has not gone into the merits of the suit. An order for expeditious disposal of any litigation, enures to the benefit of all the parties. Hence, prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite party, would not be necessary. The prayer is innocuous and very reasonable.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the suit along the application, if any, within a period of six months, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties and upon granting adequate opportunity to the opposite party to contest the proceedings. The learned court below shall proceed strictly in accordance with law and independently.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this revisional application along with the server copy of this order upon the opposite party.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

All the parties are directed to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
