Petitioner claims parity with other co-accused who was granted anticipatory bail by the order dated January 3, 2024 passed in CRM (A) 4373 of 2023.

Learned advocate appearing for the State points out that the petitioner before us was the advocate in respect of the transaction concerned.

Apparently, the transaction related to an immovable property.

Civil suits were filed.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section

438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall report before the Investigating Officer as and when called for till the conclusion of the investigation and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

CRM (A)5566 of 2023 is disposed of.
