Mr. Partha Pratim Das,
Mr. Debanshu Ghorai.

... .. for the State

Ms. Samima Akter.

...for the de-facto complainant.

1. Petitioner contends that the dispute between him and de-facto complainant who is his own brother has been resolved. Accordingly, he prays for anticipatory bail.

2. This is supported by the learned Advocate for the de-facto complainant.

3. We have considered the materials on record including the injury report. Injuries noted in the report do not appear to be life threatening. Parties are related to one another and have resolved the dispute.

4. Keeping in mind the aforesaid facts, we are of the opinion committing the petitioner to custody would not serve any worthwhile purpose.

5. Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the BNSS. He shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

6. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
