C.O. No. 4482 of 2023

Kalidas Roy

Versus

Anjali Enterprise & Anr.

Mr. Tanmay Chowdhury,
Ms. Ritoprita Ghosh

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner seeks expeditious disposal of an application for addition of party as also Title Suit No.63 of 2015. The proceedings are pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Baruipur, South 24-Parganas.

It is contended that the application is pending unnecessarily since long, although there has been an order of this Court on an earlier occasion.

Considering the submission, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner for early disposal of the proceedings, is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of, with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the application within a period of one month from the next date fixed, independently and strictly in accordance with law, upon allowing the parties to contest the proceeding. Thereafter, the learned court shall proceed with the suit in accordance with law and dispose of the same preferably within a year from the date of disposal of the application. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has neither gone into the merits of the application nor into the merits of the suit.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
