C.O. No. 4498 of 2023
Sri Gobinda Lal Ghosh
Versus
Smt. Rina Naskar & Ors.

Mr. Lalratan Mondal

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of Revocation Case No.04 of 2017, which is pending before the learned Additional District Judge at Baruipur, South 24-Parganas.

Considering the submission, this Court is of the view that the prayer of the petitioner for early disposal of the proceeding, is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of, with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the revocation case within a period of one year from the next date fixed, independently and strictly in accordance with law, upon allowing the parties to contest the proceeding. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has not gone into the merits of the revocation case.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
